Mary Palmer is identified as a daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Davis) Palmer in online trees. Many call her Mary Hewit Palmer but I don't spot the reference for that. I do not locate this Lanphear/Palmer marriage entry, copied from Barbour's published Norwich Vital Records. The spelling is slightly different from what appears on p. 202-3 in the family record here. Barbour indicates that the original was in poor shape. Perhaps it is not currently on FamilySearch.

[Although older handwriting, the entries in this section are in the same pen. I wonder if "Lucy" could have been incorrectly re-copied as "Ruby"? I only see one instance of "Rubie" as a first name in these records, and that is an African-American servant with no surname. This baptismal would match my ancestor Lucy (Lamphere) Tanner.

1766 Hanover Congregational Church, Sprague CT, Vol. 1, p. 201, Elisha, son of Soloman and Mary Lanphear, baptized Jan 3, 1766, by Rev. Salter. Although the record books begin in this 1766 period, Hanover did not get its first pastor (Andrew Lee of Saybrook) until 26 Oct 1768, and the church was originally known as the "Eighth Church of Christ of Norwich" and later the "Second Society of Lisbon" before becoming the Hanover Congregational Church (Vol. 1, p. Note, 6, 65). Solomon Lamphere does not appear on the early member lists made in 1766 and 1768. Perhaps Rev. Salter was just a visiting minister during the organizational period and entered the baptism at Hanover.

1777 – 9 Sep 1777, in open Freeman’s Meeting, said persons hereafter named took the oath for freeman of this State according to law passed at the General Assembly held at Hartford in May last, [including] Solemon Lanphere. [The source for this is supposed to be the Mansfield Town Records, according to Cindy Besser who posted on Mansfield Queries -GenForum – in 2008 that she had not been able to locate it. I don’t spot it in town or church records. Lanphear is identified in published works as signing an “oath as a Patriot” in Connecticut, apparently by this document, which would make his descendants eligible for the DAR - unless this was his son. Solomon Lanphear Jr did have Revolutionary War service as a soldier in 1775, so one would need to determine if this indeed was the father who signed, in addition to locating the actual reference].

Chaplin, Jr., and Sarah Chaplin; recorded 5 Dec 1785. [The description mirrors part of Solomon Lanphear's Mansfield tract, and there are no other purchases. It doesn't say quit claim. With only a bond in the estate record, I have not yet discovered how the parcel was divided among the children, Samuel being one of them – see 1787 entry].

NOTE: The entries for the children of Solomon Lamphere are identified as being in Norwich CT in Barbour (CT Vital Records), but I found the records in Lisbon Congregational Church instead. I do find the following entries in Norwich 1st Congregational Church for Solomon's brother John. The child, Lucy, appears in the vital records. Children of Solomon and Mary (Palmer) Lanphear:

1. Mary Lanphear, b. 18 Feb 1739/40 presumably "South Westerly" in Town of Norwich CT (before "New Ent" CT land purchase); d. 6 Jun 1755, Newent, Town of Norwich CT, unmarried.
2. Lucy [Luce in record] Lanphear, b. 13 Dec 1741 presumably Newent, Town of Norwich CT; (FamilySearch currently 2023 says m. 2 Jan 1755 Westerly RI to Jonathan Geer – but at age 13? – marriage record says "Lois" – this is probably from the Lamphere families in Westerly, not Solomon's Lucy; I think this girl may have died young) – no further information.
3. Hannah Lanphear, b. 30 Jan 1743/44 presumably Newent, Town of Norwich CT; d. 28 May 1825, age 80, tombstone in Moulton Hill Cemetery, Monson, Hampden Co MA; m. 20 Aug 1766 Norwich CT to William King, b. ca. 5 Apr 1740 Marshfield, Plymouth Co MA; d. 29 Nov 1815 Monson, Hampden Co MA. Extensive records on this couple found in "The King Genealogy: a record of the descendants of William King, of Monson, Mass., 1770," by Harvey B. King, 1897, p. 19-24, although the author gives the marriage date as 28 Oct 1765 Norwich CT.
4. Solomon Lanphear, b. 25 Dec 1745 Newent, Town of Norwich CT; wf Elizabeth (wife in Chaplin, Windham Co CT 1840 pensioner); 1790 census, Stephentown, Albany Co NY, p. 287, 2 males over 16, 6 females, neighbors Jacob Simmons and Isaac Hull; served in Rev War as Solomon Lamphere, enlisted 12 May 1775 in General Isaiah Putnam's 3rd Regiment, 2nd Company under Capt. Experience Storrs of Mansfield CT, discharged 16 Dec 1775.
5. Jedidiah Lanphear, b. 6 Jun 1748; d. 4 Mar 1752, Newent, Town of Norwich CT.
6. Samuel Lanphear, b. 20 Sep 1750 (original name "John") Newent, Town of Norwich CT; m. 20 Nov 1777 (New Haven Second Church) (also in Mansfield Town Records) to Sarah Durkee, "of Mansfield". Shirley Bucknum in her book, "The Lanphere Family Research Aid," gives a 21 Aug 1756 Windham birthdate for Sarah Durkee, daughter of Henry and Relief (Adams) Durkee. Marriage also in Hampton First Congregational Church records under heading "A Record of Marriages in Windham". 1790 census, Ashford, Windham Co CT, p. 286, Saml. Leamphere, 2 males under 16, 2 males over 16, 3 females, neighbors Benjm. Russell and Isaac Burnam. Perhaps the Samuel Lamphere in 1820 Pomfret, Windham Co CT, p. 451, age over 45, with family, neighbors Moses Edwards and Samuel Trowbridge. Possibly the Samuel Lanphear who serve in the Revolutionary War with Asa Durkee in the 8th CT Regiment, as a Private, under Capt. Nathan Stoddard's Company, commanded by Col. John Chandler; in rolls for Nov 1777 through Oct 1778, "sick absent" in some of the earlier months (Ancestry.com, Folder 138).

9. Sarah Lanphear, b. 6 Aug 1757 Newent, Town of Norwich CT; d. 16 Apr 1835 Granby, Hampshire Co MA; m. 1781 Ephraim Hyde; 1810 were living in Monson MA; Ephraim died ca. 13 Oct 1812. Columbian Centinel, 14 Nov 1812: Ephraim Hyde died in Monson, age 67.

11. Ruby Lanphear (maybe copy error for Lucy or renamed after the death of the first Lucy), b. 13 Feb 1763 Newent, Town of Norwalk CT; no further information under name Ruby. [See my NOTE at bottom].
12. Elisha Lanphear, b. 19 Aug 1765 Newent, Town of Norwich CT, m. 21 Oct 1790 (Hampton VR) (FS says NY) Sarah Bennett, both of Hampton. Elisha admitted freeman 19 Sep 1788 Hampton CT (Town Records, v. 1, p. 342). Could he be the Dr. Elisha Lanphear who d. 28 Feb 1831, aged 65, buried in Volney Cemetery, Oswego Co NY, with a much younger wife, Mary Elizabeth Lanphear, d. 1 Apr 1831, age 24 years, buried Volney Cemetery. FamilySearch says Elisha Lamphare d. 26 Jan 1858, age 92; bur. Ohio Cemetery, Rio, Columbia Co WI; Sarah Lamphare b. 5 Aug 1770 Windham Co CT; d. 25 Mar 1854, age 85; buried Ohio Cemetery, Rio, Columbia Co WI. Newer bronze grave marker – Private, Co F, 58 PA Regiment, War of 1812. It is interesting that Shirley Bucknum in her book "The Lanphere Family Research Aid," p. 7, uses the 1854 Wisconsin death date for Sarah, but then says the stone is in Volney Cemetery in New York. (One Elisha is probably Solomon's son and the other John's son – same age).

NOTE – This timeline was prepared in an effort to locate parents for my direct ancestor Lucy (Lamphere) Tanner (1763-1849) of Battskill, Washington Co NY; Stephentown and Petersburg, Rensselaer (then Albany) Co NY; Sempronius and Locke, Cayuga Co NY; Erie and Clarence, Erie Co NY; Homer, Medina Co OH; and Ruggles, Ashland Co OH. Her husband, Nathan Tanner, was originally from South Kingstown and Exeter, Washington Co RI. Charts on both FamilySearch and Ancestry currently (2023) list Solomon and Mary (Palmer) Lanphear as the parents of my ancestor Lucy, who died in 1849 at the home of her son Hiram Tanner in Ruggles Township, Ashland County (formerly Huron County), Ohio, just four miles south of my residence in New London OH. Although Solomon has a much older daughter Lucy (1741), there is no mention in civil or church records for a Lucy born in 1763. My goal in creating the timeline was to find something in the paper record that connected Solomon and Mary (Palmer) Lanphear with my Nathan and Lucy (Lamphere) Tanner. Unfortunately, I failed to find anything. Yes, my Mom’s DNA ThruLines chart at Ancestry.com shows Solomon Lanphear as a suggested parent. There are currently 7 matches, but only 2 with siblings of Lucy. One match through Hannah Lamphere at 6 generations removed from the ancestor is 9 cm, and 1 match through Samuel Lamphere at 6 generations is 11 cm. The other 5 matches are from descendants of our line from Lucy (Lamphere) Tanner and range from 9 cm to 64 cm at various generational degrees of distance. With the DNA, there certainly is some connection, although it could be with some other family member on the George Lanphear/Lamphere descendancy chart, perhaps combined with other matches to people in my Mom’s more extensive tree. The big IF is that if Solomon’s daughter “Luce” (1741) died young, maybe the child “Ruby” (1763) is indeed my Lucy (Lamphere) Tanner. Maybe they adopted the name “Lucy” to honor the deceased older sister, or perhaps a second “Lucy” was transcribed as “Ruby” (an uncommon name) from some original slip, now gone. “Ruby” does appear in both the church and vital record journals. “Ruby” was born 13 Feb 1763, and my “Lucy” was also born in Feb 1763, according to the 1905 genealogy of “William Tanner of North Kingstown, Rhode Island and his Descendants,” by Rev. George C. Tanner, although her tombstone (West Homer Cemetery, Medina Co OH) says “Lucy Tannar [sic], died Feb. 28, 1849, aged 86 y 1 m 28 ds” which would compute to a Jan. 1st birthdate. This is where I am at this point (not able to place Solomon as Lucy’s father). I would welcome any additional material on Solomon Lanphear not mentioned here.
